

Caboodle Cartridge Named Entrepreneur of the Year

October 27, 2008

Caboodle Cartridge, Centreville was named Queen Anne's County Chamber of Commerce's 2008 Entrepreneur of the Year at the Business in Excellence awards presentation on Thursday October 23, 2008. Caboodle Cartridge, operated by husband and wife team, Courtney and Doug Estelow, began their ink and toner cartridge business in August 2006.

Caboodle Cartridge sells certified remanufactured (recycled) toner and ink cartridges up to 65% less than the original manufacturers. They service businesses and individuals all over the Eastern Shore. Since their opening Caboodle has recycled over 3,000 ink and toner cartridges!

In addition to their store at 108 Broadway, Centreville, Caboodle Cartridge has two merchant partners that carry a selection of their ink cartridges; Corsica Technologies in the Rainbow Plaza, Chester and Island Shipping & More in the Thompson Creek Mall, Stevensville.

Beth Hebert owner of Beth Hebert Graphic Designs says, "Caboodle Cartridge has been most instrumental in my switch to refurbished cartridges from the manufacturer's cartridges. Having used other such products, I was initially a bit gun shy, to say the least. However, after using Caboodle's cartridges in my inkjet printer for several months, I have discovered how much more brilliant the colors are and how stable they print on various papers. Not to mention, Doug and Courtney Estelow are most professional in our transactions. My graphic design business presents proofs well, thanks to Caboodle, along with small runs for funeral memorials and birth announcements. Keep up the great work!"

Greg Frankos of Pioneer Insurance says, "The cost savings of their products is obvious. What is not obvious is their exceptional knowledge and service. Courtney and her team go above and beyond a normal level of service that is not often paralleled in today's world. Take the time to learn about Caboodle; you will not be disappointed."

When asked how it feels to be named Entrepreneur of the Year Doug says, "It's exciting to be recognized by the business community. It is a great honor, thank you!" Courtney agrees by saying, "Wow! Thank you to all of our great customers for using their noodle and buying Caboodle! We appreciate your trust that our products are a high quality and cost effective alternative and we appreciate your continued support.”
